MEET

REBECCA

Working in the jewellery industry for close to ten years, award winning jewellery designer and goldsmith Rebecca has built up a vast knowledge of jewellery design and production.

For Rebecca, jewellery should be made to hold meaning beyond style and fashion. Helping couples create their one-of-a-kind wedding bands brings her joy everyday.

WHY MAKE YOUR OWN WEDDING RINGS?

Jewellery holds so much sentiment and tradition - none more so than the wedding ring.

Knowing this, we place the specific needs of our couples at the very heart of what we do. By making this an experience that is solely about the two of you, we wish this time together to become very much a part of your wedding celebration.

Our studio is set within a vibrant artists community and, as an individual couple, you can be assured that you will be given full and attention throughout your day.

We love union in whatever form it takes. No matter what traditions you follow, omit or redefine - however you identify and whoever you love - we would be delighted to play even a tiny part in cementing that bond.

You don't have to be crafty or have any experience making jewellery to make the most beautiful rings. All you need is enthusiasm - we'll help you with the rest!

THE PROCESS

BOOK A CONSULTATION

The first step is simply getting in touch! We will then drop you a line to arrange a no-commitment consultation - either online or in person.

During this consultation we will discuss details of the rings that you would like to make. Full guidance will be given so don't worry if you don't know!

MAKE YOUR RINGS WITH US

On your day, you will use a variety of traditional goldsmithing techniques to create your rings - your way.

This is a very 'hands - on' experience so, be they textured or polished, simple or shaped,, professional tuition will be given to ensure you achieve your vision.

The day includes a deliciously decadent lunch, plenty of tea and coffee and of course a celebratory glass of bubbly!

FINISHING TOUCHES

At the end of the day, once you have finished admiring your rings, they will be sent for compulsory hallmarking - the cost of which is included in the quoted price.

Any engraving and gemsetting can also be arranged at this point. And, then finally, upon collection, your rings which will be presented to you in a luxurious, fine quality jewellery box.

METAL & PRICING

As a commitment to best ethical practice, we work as standard in 100% recycled gold and platinum. Fairtrade gold is also available upon request - please enquire for further details.

WORKSHOP PRICING GUIDE

The full day is £395 per couple.

The evening session is £320 per couple.

These prices do not include the cost of materials. However, all additional costs will be discussed and agreed upon in ample time ahead of your day.

RING PRICING GUIDE

The cost of your ring will depend on four pieces of information:

- Metal colour and carat
- Band width
- Band profile shape
- Ring finger size

Once we have this information we can provide a quote for your rings.

MAKE THEM EVEN MORE MEANINGFUL

ENGRAVING & GEMSTONES

If you would like the personal touch of engraving or the finishing touch of gem setting - or even the fine touch of milgrain - we will happily arrange this for you and confirm all additional costs and time frames before going ahead.

USE YOUR OWN GOLD

We appreciate that the sentiment of jewellery sometimes extends to the metal itself. In which case, perhaps you already have some pre-loved precious metals that you would like to use.

Being committed recyclers we are happy to make this happen. While not all metals are suitable for recycling, a full assessment will be provided prior to your day with additional time requirements and remodelling costs agreed then.
